

Kotone Matsuyama

Kotone Matsuyama is currently a Professor, Department of Health Policy and Management, and Vice President of Center for Strategic Research Initiative, Nippon Medical School. She is also an adjunct Lecturer, Clinical Pharmacology, Faculty of Medicine, Oita University, and an adjunct Lecturer of Bioethics , Faculty of Medicine, Kyoto Prefectural University of Medicine. She started her R&D carrier as a data manager in 2003. She has been worked as project manager since 2005. She spent 12 years at Translational Research Informatics Center, Foundation for Biomedical Research and Innovation, Kobe and 2.5 years as Lecturer at Center for Quality Assurance in Research and Development, Kyoto Prefectural University of Medicine. She has been managed or supported many R&D projects oriented academia, not only for drugs, but also medical devices and regenerative medicines. Her specialty is the process optimization throughout a project, recently known such as a clinical planning method using Quality by Design. She won awards of excellence of 36th annual congress of the Japanese Society of Clinical Pharmacology and Therapeutics, and 7th annual congress of Japan Society of Clinical Trials and Research. She graduated Kyoto University Faculty of Pharmaceutical Science and obtained a license of Pharmacist.