

Michiko Tomiyasu

M.TOMIYASU has been working in Medical Excellence & Training of Medical Affairs in Sanofi.K.K. since March 2015. She currently involves in supporting for in MA staff and before that she had established MSL Certification program inside the company. Just prior to taking part in Sanofi K.K. she worked in AstraZeneca K.K. for fourteen years where she used to projecting HEOR /pharmacoeconomics studies for every therapeutic areas as Value Demonstration Scientist and senior MSL in cardiovascular area in Medical Department, Medical Information Officer in M&S, Pricing Officer in Market Access. M.TOMIYASU has over 20-year experiences in the pharmaceutical industries. M.TOMIYASU is pharmacist, graduated in Meiji Pharmaceutical University in 1990 and Master of Engineering, graduated in Graduate School of Science and Technology in Keio University in 1992. She started her career in foreign cosmetic industry in research and development department then changed course toward the pharmaceutical industry throughout living in England. Available languages are English and French. She has been a member of MA committee in JAPhMed since 2012.