

Masahiro Nitta

Mr. Masahiro Nitta currently works in Medical Affairs, Sumitomo Dainippon Pharma Co., Ltd. After he graduated Kyoto University with a degree of master of science in 1994, he joined Sumitomo Pharmaceuticals as a research scientist, where his main research field was metabolic diseases. In 2009, he started his job in the drug development division in the same company where he worked on the development of a psychiatric drug. During his carrier, he spent total of 4 years in a biotech company and a psychiatric hospital in the US as a researcher.